Gone for Life

Judge Bennett this morning sentenced Burkhard Bram, the Green County murderer, to the penitentiary for life. This is a sentence warranted by the facts in the case and the verdict of the jury. Bram is a hard character, a man of violent passion, and after his sentence this morning, while on his way to his cell, he gave vent to his feelings, allowed his temper to go uncontrolled, and was regretted that he hadn't killed the prosecutor instead of Stensley. A few days of solitary confinement at Waukegan, and hard labor for a while, will cool him down.

Put upon His Feet

"Set up in bed and coughed till the clothing was wet with perspiration. My wife insisted that I use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first teaspoonful relieved me, and two bottles have cured me. I can honestly recommend it." E. H. Perkins, Creek Centre, N. Y.

The Water Works Question

A number of citizens interested in the water-works bill now before the assembly, have gone to Madison to urge its passage. A short time ago a petition bearing the names of several hundred tax-payers was sent to Madison asking Assemblyman Britton to use his efforts in having the bill become a law. There is no doubt that a majority of the tax-payers in Janesville are in favor of the bill, becoming a law, because, under its provisions no contract for water-works could be let without the consent of a majority of the tax-payers in the city.

This question, like all other local questions concerning which there is a divided opinion, is frequently a difficult one to settle. The responsibility of the passage or defeat of the bill does not altogether rest with Colonel Britton. Of course he can send it through both houses on short notice if he so desires, or he can kill it with one brief motion. But he does not wish to take this much upon himself, and would rather hear an expression regarding the matter from the representative business men. He will doubtless head the sentiment of the majority, if that can be ascertained, so that whatever is done will not be done against the express wish of the people.

Death of Mrs. C. G. Gillett

Mrs. C. G. Gillett died this morning at one o'clock, at her home on South Main street, after suffering several weeks from paralysis, a greater portion of the time being unconscious. The deceased was in her 70th year. Mrs. Gillett's maiden name was Betsy A. Morrill, and was a cousin of Hon. Lott M. Morrill, of Maine. She was born in St. Albans, Vermont, January 14, 1814. She left St. Albans for Akron, Ohio, in 1837, was married to the late Captain C. G. Gillett, August 2, 1838, and came to Janesville in March, 1845, where she has since resided. Of her family of three children, but one survives her, Mrs. Fanny A. Corryell, of this city. Her son, Charles G. Gillett, died in 1855; her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Wood, July 14th, 1879, and her husband, July 10, 1877. She leaves many warm friends in this city, especially among the old residents, who will be saddened when they learn of her death.

Invigorating Food

For the brain and nerve is what we need in these days of rush and worry. Parker's Ginger-Tonic restores the vital energies and brings good health and joyous spirits quicker than anything you can use. Tribune.

The Glee Club

Arrangements have been completed for a concert by the Oberlin glee club, Saturday evening, March 21st, at the Congregational church. Many will remember the concert given here last spring by the college boys in the Guards' armory. Of this concert the Gazette said: "The programme with the half dozen encores made the concert the best, longest and most satisfactory of any which has been given in Janesville for years. Those who staid away thinking it was an ordinary concert were badly disappointed."

The club has done some of its best work since their first appearance here, and is more worthy of a hearing than ever before. No one who enjoys rollicking songs and good music can afford to miss this concert. Admission for adults, 50 cents. Children 25 cents.

The Weather

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 2 degrees above zero and at one o'clock p. m. at 25 degrees above. Partly cloudy weather, wind northeast, backing to northwest.

Everybody Knows It

Everybody knows what red clover is. It has been used many years by the good old German women and physicians for the blood, and is known as the best blood purifier when properly prepared. Combined with other medicinal herbs and roots, it forms "Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic," which is good for all blood disorders, torpid liver, costiveness and sick headache, and is a cure for pimples. Ask Stearns & Baker, druggists, for it. Only fifty cents a bottle.

Home Scraps

Next Friday evening the Jolly Pathfinders will give an entertainment at Myers opera house. It is an excellent company and the performance full of interest. The St. Paul Daily Globe, recently gave the Pathfinders the following notice:

"The Jolly Pathfinders gave a very entertaining exhibition at the opera house last evening to a delighted audience. There is no particular plot to the play, and its merits consists in the excellence of the specialties rendered by the different members of the company. The entertainment is made up of 'Songs,' consisting of songs, melodies, dances, etc., etc. Miss Maria-Jedler appears in four characters, and sustains such a variety of roles. The other members of the company were equally good. Take it altogether the entertainment was full of fun, and if the readers of the Globe want to 'laugh and grow fat,' we advise them all to go to the opera house to-night and try the experiment."

The valuable time lost by farmers on account of their horses having sore necks and shoulders can easily be avoided by using Colby's Veterinary Carbolisaline. It prevents inflammation, cures collar and saddle galls quickly, while the horse is being used, and invariably brings the hair in its original color.

Colden's Liquid Beef Tonic

As a tonic in all cases of debility and weakness, cannot be surpassed.

Personal

—The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Faville returned to Evansville to-day.
—Colonel Britton occupied the chair in the assembly on Monday evening, when that body was in committee of the whole.
—Mrs. Clara L. Sanborn, of Janesville, is visiting with C. L. Alling's family at No. 60 East Division street.—Fond du Lac Commonwealth.

—Mr. G. W. King, wife and daughter of Evengston, Wyoming, are in the city, visiting Mr. King's sister, Mrs. C. D. Childs, North Bluff street. Mr. King is en route to the Hot Springs, in Arkansas, for the benefit of his health, having been, somewhat of an invalid since leaving the army during the late war.

—Miss De Ette Howard, recently, executed a copy of "The Critic" after the famous painting by Peter Moran. It is done with pen and ink, and considering its size it is the finest piece of pen work we have yet seen. Some time ago the Gazette had occasion to make mention of a number of small pictures Miss Howard had executed with pen and ink. The drawings which we then noticed were singularly free from defects, and showed much more than common artistic merit. Since then she has tried more pretensions subjects, the last being the well known "Critic." It is a most splendid piece of work, and one which her many friends will take great pleasure in seeing.

—Mr. Cyrus Miner, treasurer of the state agricultural society, started for Eau Claire to-day, to be present at a meeting of the committee appointed to locate the next state fair, which meets in that city to-morrow. A dispatch from Eau Claire to the Milwaukee Sentinel of to-day, says: "The citizens of Eau Claire and surroundings are alive to the interest and importance of securing the location of the state fair at this point, and are making arrangements accordingly. The executive committee of the state agricultural society will visit here on Tuesday next for the purpose of looking over the grounds and other accommodations and inducements that will be offered. A citizens' committee, consisting of sixteen prominent business men has been appointed to take the matter in hand, with J. G. Thorp as president, Eugene Shaw, vice president, and George W. Thomas as secretary. The merchants' club is taking lively interest in the movement, and at a special meeting appointed a committee of eight to act with the citizens' committee, with H. B. McMaster as chairman. A mass meeting of the citizens will be held at the council chamber on Monday evening to make further arrangements."

At Janesville

HELENA, March 20.—Postmaster Coomes, who kept a wayside hotel eleven miles northwest of Helena, and a hangar on named Smith was both lynched last night by masked men. They were suspected of burning the barn of a neighbor, H. C. McNally, causing the death of several horses, and cattle. Coomes also attempted several weeks ago to rape a child of McNally's.

A Threatened Raid

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—The leading jewelers of this city are in receipt of a circular letter, that is significant. It comes from New York, and brings information that an organized gang of daring thieves is about to make a raid on western cities. The multiple-armed band of burglars and similar criminals in New York to prevent robberies in the West, and to prevent the escape of thieves, jewelry stores, and other places where rich booty is to be had and a sharp campaign inaugurated against them by the authorities. It is reported that the gang is preparing for a sudden temporary migration from New York city of a large band, whose plans for work in the west have been matured on an extensive scale. St. Louis, the worst managed place for the country, will, it is feared, be first visited by the band.
